

Good Morning Saints of St. Stephen's

The following events will be available to you this week. The Feast day of the Rev. Alexander Crummell was September the 10th and UBE posted the celebration the 13th of September please watch the celebration at the LINK below.

Also I've included LINKs for The University of the South's celebration of the legacy of the Rev. Fr. Joseph N. Green, Jr..

Finally, Louise Toppin Has invited us to participate in a Celebration of the Legacy of Willis Patterson.

Enjoy

Willis+

2020 UBE Celebrates – The Feast of Rev Alexander Crummell

Follow the LINK below

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Vu2j4DUEQ8U&feature=youtu.be>

The Rev. Joseph Green to be honored at Sewanee

The University of the South at Sewanee, Tennessee, invites you to join them virtually to honor The Rev. Dr. Joseph N. Green, Jr. at the unveiling of his portrait in Hamilton Hall at the School of Theology, September 15 at 1 p.m. School of Theology classes 2017 and 2019 commissioned the portrait because of his role in making Sewanee more diverse and welcoming and in recognition for all he has done during his ministry. Rev. Green made history in 1965 when he became the first African American to graduate from the University of the South. Click here to join the webinar on September 15 at 1 p.m.

Celebration of the Legacy of Willis Patterson

I am hosting a virtual conference September 18-20, 2020 on African American music and to celebrate the legacy of Willis Patterson on his 90th birthday.(former VSU faculty member who left VA to integrate the University of Michigan). If you'd like to attend any of these free events, here is the link to register:

<https://smt.d.umich.edu/performances-events/african-american-music-conference-2020/>

People can not only register but leave greetings for Dean Patterson via the link on the website.

Thank you!!

Louise