

The National Park Service presents "The foregoing sale: Honoring Enslaved People at City Point"

Date: Saturday,
March 4, 2023

Begin time: 1:00 p.m.

Location: Event
begins at St.
John's
Episcopal Church,
505 Cedar Lane,
Hopewell, VA.

All other events
the remainder of the day take place at 1001 Pecan Avenue, Hopewell.

In the event of rain, the evening portion of the event will have to be canceled.

Featuring Akoma De Gado Dance and Drum Ensemble and Reclaiming the Monument (visual light artists)

Schedule of Events

1:00 pm: The Life and Times of James Madison Ruffin with a floral tribute to him and his daughter at St. John's Episcopal Church, 505 Cedar Lane, Hopewell.

1:45-3:00 pm: Guided tours of Plantation House, Historic Documents on the Slave Trade exhibition, and outbuildings. Final tour will take place at 2:30.

3:15-3:45 pm: Insight into the Richmond Slave Trade through Bins, Henry Corsen, and Jim Booker (indoor lecture)

4:00-5:30 pm: House is closed but grounds remain open

5:30-7:30 pm Special program with Akoma De Gado Dance and Drum Ensemble remarks about the individuals who were sold on March 2, 1837, a reading of their names, and a light projection by Reclaiming the Monument.

FREE EVENT AND FREE PARKING

Questions? Contact Emmanuel Dabney, 804-732-3571 ext. 305 or Emmanuel_Dabney@nps.gov